

- Internationally accomplished architect and planner with 25-year work experience, at all levels of planning, design and construction for major transportation projects, with the main focus on airports and airport terminals
- Project experience working in the US, Europe, Middle East and Asia
- Expert in transportation planning ranging from large airports to urban intermodal transportation and mobility hubs
- 10-year work career as airport and transportation planner in Hong Kong and leading terminal planning on all major Hong Kong Airport projects since 2009
- 10-year previous work career as architect and planner at Skidmore, Owings & Merrill (SOM) in New York, working on a wide range of national and international projects, for airports and urban master planning